Friday 18th February 2022

Hello everyone.

I hope you are all okay and having a lovely day!

Literacy – Can you fill in the missing punctuation? This could be a capital letter or full stop.

today is friday

it was really cold outside

i went to the park with my friend sam

my favourite food is pizza and chips

the snow was falling heavy from the sky

Can you practice writing your numbers from 0-50? If you want to you could write them up to 100.

Challenge- Can you practice writing your numbers in 2s, 5s and 10s?

Topic Can you draw a plate of food that helps us stay healthy? Use the plate below to help you. Think about the different sections of the plate.

Please don't worry about this work and like I always say just try your best!

I can't wait to see all your work, if you would like to you can send me what you get up to via my email address: parrya286@hwbcymru.net

Have a lovely half term! See you soon, Miss Parry x
